

DAY 1

- Accommodation at Masseria Asciano - The sound of train tracks in the distance, the breezy wind among the olive trees, the scents of a just opened oven, the genuine flavours of Mediterranean cookery. The warmth and the smile of the Asciano family and of their parrot Cocò will welcome you to Apulia! The plain of the centuries-old olive trees, a marvellous sweep rich in history and traditions, is an authentic earthly paradise. The farmhouse Masseria Asciano is situated 5 km from the seaside (Blue Flag winner in 2013 and 'Cinque Vele Legambiente' Seaside Awards winner in 2013) and only 4 km from Ostuni city centre, the so-called White City. Here, you can spend a relaxing vacation throughout the year, or just visiting it for some tastings or to learn the production process of organic extra virgin olive oil.
- Free lunch and time to see the complex
- In the afternoon visit of the Museo dell'Olio (the olive oil museum).
- Transfer to the city center of Brindisi and free time.
- Gastronomic dinner at Trattoria Pantagruelle - Traditional Apulian "trattoria" restaurant providing earth and sea food.
